

Author's Bio:

Ekeoma G. Ekeleme, a seasoned professional boasting over 25 years of experience in Human Services and Early Childhood Development, is not only an accomplished professional but also a dynamic public speaker and workshop presenter. Her academic journey includes earning degrees from Norfolk State University, Lincoln University (M.S. in Administration), and Albright College (M.S. in Special Education).

Beyond her impressive academic achievements, Ekeoma is passionately dedicated to making a positive impact through purposeful travel. In 2019, she provided essential training to therapy staff and parents of children with disabilities in Lima, Peru, at Warmakuna Hope. Her impactful efforts extended to assisting young adults with disabilities in Kingston, Jamaica, showcasing her commitment to improving lives worldwide.

Ekeoma loves engaging audiences through fun-filled workshops and speaking engagements. Her vibrant and interactive sessions bring a unique blend of expertise, enthusiasm, and genuine connection to every audience. If you're looking to add a dynamic speaker to your next event, reach out to have Ms. Ekeleme present and bring her wealth of experience and engaging energy to your audience.

Blurb about the book:

"Unlocking the Wonders of Early Child Development: A Guide to Nurturing your Child's Development from Birth to Age Three" is a captivating journey through the unpredictable and inspiring realm of parenthood. This book acknowledges the diverse experiences that new parents and their infants may face, ranging from the challenges of premature birth to unexpected hearing screenings and feeding difficulties.

With each turn of the page, readers are immersed deeper into the enchanting landscape of early childhood development, where every baby is uniquely individual with their own set of needs and potential hurdles. This comprehensive guide not only provides a profound understanding of the five pivotal domains of child development but also equips you with practical, hands-on activities to promote your child's growth.

Consider this book an invitation to embark on an illuminating journey, arming you with the knowledge and tools necessary to create a nurturing environment where your child can truly flourish. Whether you're a first-time parent or an experienced caregiver, this book serves as your guide to unlocking the wonders of early childhood.

Blurb about the coloring books:

"Dive into a world of representation and creativity with our diverse line of coloring books that celebrate the beauty of every child. In a market historically lacking diversity, our coloring books are a breath of fresh air, featuring African American children with a rich array of hair textures and styles. Explore the vibrant pages of our collection, which includes dedicated books recognizing the legacy of Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU), heartwarming depictions of Black families, and a special focus on Black boys and young men.

Our lineup extends beyond traditional themes, offering coloring books filled with positive affirmations, embracing the wonders of science, showcasing everyday routines, and more. Each page is a canvas for imagination, providing a space where children of color can see themselves reflected positively and joyfully. Join us in celebrating diversity and empowering young minds with our inclusive and inspiring coloring book series."